

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Thank you. I ask your support of this amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: That was the closing on the Vard Johnson amendment. The question is the adoption of the amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Please vote if you care to. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 8 nays on adoption of Senator Johnson's amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The Vard Johnson amendment is adopted. Do you have anything else on the bill? Record vote has been requested.

CLERK: (Read the record vote. See page 1173 of the Legislative Journal.) 29 ayes, 8 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: It is adopted. Do you have anything else on it?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Vard Johnson would move to amend. (V. Johnson Amendment appears on pages 1173-77 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Vard Johnson.

CLERK: That is AM2362, Senator.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Vard Johnson.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Yes. Mr. President and members of the Legislature, Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, I would like to be able to run this amendment relatively quickly and not involve this body in protracted debate. This amendment is an amendment that has in effect been suggested by the District Court Procedures Committee. It is one designed essentially to establish the same rules for obtaining temporary restraining orders as exist in the federal system. I think there is a little leaflet being circulated right now which will explain the amendment. I will tell you definitively that we are simply asking that Nebraska judicial processes coincide with federal judicial processes with respect to temporary restraining orders. That is the amendment.
